

PRIORS FIELD Long Term Overview of Geography and History

YEAR Group	Autumn 1	Autumn 2	Spring 1	Spring 2	Summer 1	Summer 2
Year 1	History: Toys then and now	Geography: Field work, map making, asking questions and describing the Environmental Area.	History: Focusing on the lives of significant individuals	Geography: Field work, map making, asking questions and describing the Environmental Area.	History: Focusing on the lives of significant individuals	Geography: Field work, map making, asking questions and describing the Environmental Area.
Year 2	Exploring Down Under (Geography)	Remember, remember Gun powder plot Great Fire of London (History)	Night time No Geography / History focus but any links will be covered	Bog Baby No Geography / History focus but any links will be covered	Shakespeare - The Tempest (History)	George and the Dragon The British Isles (Geography)
Year 3	Changes in Britain from the Stone age to the Iron age	Using maps and atlases Geographical similarities and differences (Antarctica)	To investigate patterns and name locations	Ancient Egyptians Investigate and interpret the past	To communicate geographically	Romans
Year 4	Much Ado about Kenilworth Local history and the Tudors (History)	Intrepid Explorers Shackleton and Antarctica (Geography)	Inspirational Inventors (no Geography or History links)	Intrepid Explorers Darwin (Geography)	Wolves (No Geography or History link)	Invaders and Raiders Anglo Saxons (History)
Year 5	Use digital mapping to record information Understand geographical features	Biomes Investigate patterns identifying and describing geographical differences	Viking invasion	Investigate places describing physical and human features	Fieldwork skills H2O Rivers and Coasts Water Cycle	Ancient Greece Twelfth Night (History)
Year 6	Mysterious Mayans Migration Routes Historical artefacts (Geography and History)	What a Disaster Volcanoes/earthquakes/Tsunamis (Geography)	No Geography / History focus but any links will be covered	All the World's a Stage (History)	No Geography / History focus but links will be covered	We'll Meet Again (Geography and History)